Project Appleseed is a nationwide program that teaches rifle marksmanship and American heritage. We seek to rekindle Americans' shooting skills through the fundamentals of position, breathing, trigger control and natural point of aim. We also reconnect Americans' lost sense of heritage through the story of April 19, 1775, telling of our forefathers' difficult choices, heroic actions, and the sacrifices they made for their posterity.

What You Will Learn?

- How the American Revolution Started
- Role of the American Rifleman
- Shooting With a Sling
- Proper Shooting Positions
- Six Steps To Firing A Shot
- Natural Point of Aim
- Rifleman's Cadence
- Known Distance Shooting
- Safety, Sight Adjustment, Trigger Control, and Much More

Project Appleseed is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization and will host more than 1000 shoots nationwide this year, 36 in Michigan. Over 100,000 participants have gone through the program since 2006. We have over 1000 volunteer instructors who each put in 120+ hours of hands-on experience and evaluation prior to becoming certified as an instructor.
